About Marie Christine

With over 16 years of extensive experience in the circus industry as a trapeze artist, including a decade touring with Cirque Du Soleil and collaborating with world-renowned companies such as The 7 Fingers and Cirque Eloize, Marie Christine is also a certified circus arts teacher from the Montreal National Circus School.

This rich experience has allowed her to acquire a wide range of technical, artistic and methodological knowledge, which she enthusiastically share in her workshops.

Thanks to this personal journey and these unique life experiences, she is delighted to be able to pass on to her students not only technical knowledge, but also a deeper and more enriching understanding of the circus arts world.
